

Buzz Photo Competition Collaboration Continues

This week some shots from the Owls Head Transportation Museum by Ron Tesler. Ron had some color shots too, but to save toner we chose these black and whites.

How about a photo or two from you? Enter as many as you like, we will print as many as we can. Both black and white and color photos are welcome.

Please send photos, questions & comments, to joe@interhuman.org

Note: We are back in color toner (yellow, cyan and magenta) thanks to your kind support for the toner fund. To find out how you can support Rockland community radio and our broadsheet The Buzz, visit wrfr.org.

Tune in to WRFR, Rockland's all-volunteer radio station.

WRFR is open to everyone. Programming is as diverse as the range of talents and interests of our community. All programming is locally generated, and you are invited to do your own show. To learn more about WRFR, check out our website at WRFR.org and tune in, to 93.3 fm in Rockland, and 99.3 fm in Camden.
